

Singing Valentines

Touch the hearts of all the SPECIAL people in your life.

Pacific Empire Chorus is delivering Singing Valentines to surprised and delighted recipients all around the North Bay. We'll send a costumed quartet to deliver a song, a fresh flower, personalized card and optional candy to your someone special.

This is a gift they will always remember! We can deliver it to their home, work place, most restaurants, schools, hospitals, wherever.

We'd love to sing for you this year!!! Give us a call soon to book your Valentine delivery.

Your special someone isn't in the Northbay? No problem! Singing Valentines can also be delivered by phone.

Dates: February 12–14, 2011

Times: Flexible (you will be asked to give a delivery window)

Cost: Phone Delivery: $10.00
Hand Delivery: $40.00 (additional charges may be added for deliveries outside out standard delivery area) and $5.00 extra for the optional candy.

Songs: Let Me Call You Sweetheart or Cuddle Up A Little Closer

How to Order: We will begin taking orders for Singing Valentines in January, 2011. Please call 1-877-772-0087 or check out our webpage at PacificEmpire.org to complete the preliminary order information. If you need to make advance arrangements now for a Valentines-themed show by either our chorus or a quartet, please also let us know.

Need more information? View Frequently asked questions about our Singing Valentines program.